child abuse prevention

Priority health issue

VISION

Hood County is a community where children are safe, secure, healthy and have a strong sense of self-worth.

Current members

- Acton United Methodist Church
- Brazos Pregnancy Center
- Toni Brown-Belew
- Madalyn Cano/Lake Pointe Resource Center Inc.
- Rev. Margret L. Fields
- Granbury Housing Authority
- Granbury Independent School District
- Granbury Police Department
- Green Apple Therapy Services
- Hood County Attorney's Office/Deanna Belknap
- Hood County Children's Charity Fund Inc.
- Hood County Sheriff's Office
- Hood County Substance Abuse Council
- Hood County YMCA
- Tom Kemp
- Lake Granbury Medical Center
- Lena Pope Home
- Lipan Independent School District
- The Honorable Lori Kaspar
- Paluxy River Children's Advocacy Center
- Pecan Valley Centers
- Brian Rosetti
- Salvation Army Women's Service League-Hood Co.
- Lynn Smith & Company
- STAR Council
- Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Hood County
- Jerry Tidwell
- United Way of Hood County
- Misty Walters

GOAL 1
ENGAGE HOOD COUNTY COMMUNITY to improve children’s health.

GOAL 2
INCREASE COMMUNITY AWARENESS about good parenting and healthy children.

GOAL 3
DEVELOP COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES to support good parenting and healthy children.

GOAL 4
MONITOR CHILDREN’S HEALTH ISSUES
to support safe, secure and healthy children.
Coalition members supported the GO BLUE campaign in recognition of Child Abuse Prevention Month.

Fiscal year 2015 accomplishments*

- 11 active Parent Café facilitators
- 79 people (unduplicated) attended Parent Café sessions
- 9 out of 10 parents attending Parent Cafés said they will use the new parenting styles more often than before
- 1,093 prevention tools distributed
- 3,934 educational resources distributed
- 54 individual volunteers (unduplicated) gave 295 volunteer hours to support coalition activities

For more information, contact marsha.waters@cookchildrens.org.