

Priority health issue

Healthy lifestyles and childhood obesity prevention

VISION

Johnson County, a community choosing healthy habits to build healthy generations.

Current members

Alvarado Independent School District
Burleson Independent School District
CASA of Johnson County
Children's Advocacy Center of Johnson County
City of Burleson
City of Cleburne
Cleburne Independent School District
Community Opportunities Inc.
East Cleburne Community Center
Family Crisis Center Johnson County
Halley Holloway
Harvest House
H-E-B Burleson

Huguley Medical Associates
Joshua YMCA
Rio Vista Independent School District
Dr. Lori Rose, Hill College
Southwestern Adventist University
Tarrant Area Food Bank
Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service of Johnson County
Texas Department of State Health Services
Texas Health Hospital Cleburne
Texas Health Huguley Hospital
United Way of Johnson County
Venus Independent School District

GOAL 1

RAISE AWARENESS

of Johnson County health data.

GOAL 2

PROVIDE HEALTHY LIFESTYLE TRAINING

for children and families.

GOAL 3

PARTNER WITH COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

to sustain improvement in children's health.

Fiscal year 2015 accomplishments*

ADOPTED 5210 as main approach to prevent childhood obesity in Johnson County

Every Day!

4,573 educational resources distributed

1,665 nutrition and physical activity tools distributed

Godley High School students received an award on behalf of the Health Occupations Students of America for their presentations of 5-2-1-0 messages to younger students

1,639 children (duplicated) received education on

66 individual volunteers

(unduplicated)

411
volunteer hours

Every Day!

GAVE

to support coalition activities

The coalition and funding partners helped 531 children plant and maintain 3 community gardens

For more information, contact jammie.josephson@cookchildrens.org.